Journal Prompts

Parent Study

Family Study

Note: A journal or notebook will be needed for keeping notes and answering reflective questions while working through the parent study of Will They Stand.

1.

- ? What legacy do you want to leave for your children?
-  Find a passage of Scripture to be the foundation for this legacy.
- Write it and place it in a location you will see regularly.

2.

-  Journal your reflections after reading the key thoughts from Chapter 2.
- ? Whose godly legacy has impacted you?
- Write how they have impacted your life and how you desire to emulate their example.
-  Discuss the importance of these influences in your life with your family.

3.

-  Journal your reflections after reading the key thoughts from Chapter 3.
- ? What changes or adjustments do you feel would be wise to make as you endeavor to raise godly generations?

4.

-  Journal your reflections after reading the key thoughts from Chapter 4.
-  Read Psalm 78.
- ✓ As a family, build a monument together. Each part of your monument should represent a testimony of the goodness of God toward your family.

5.

-  Journal your reflections after reading the key thoughts from Chapter 5.
- Write the prayer from pages 146-147 or write one in your own words.

6.

-  Journal your reflections after reading the key thoughts and building blocks from Chapter 7.
- Make a list of the influences in your children's lives. Review the list to find if these influences are helping to instill or break down a biblical worldview.
- ? Should you make any changes to the level of exposure your children have to these influences?

7.

-  Journal your reflections after reading the key thoughts and building blocks from Chapter 8.
- ? How are you filling your children with the pure salt from God's Word?

8.

- ✓ Create a family statement of faith.
- ? Do your education choices for your children build on the foundation of this statement?
-  If you find an issue here, discuss the changes you can make to begin building on this foundation.

9.

-  Read Matthew 6:25-34.
- Write about the sacrifices you have made during your walk with Christ and how you have witnessed God's provision in those times.
-  Discuss these testimonies with your family.

10.

- Review what you wrote after chapter 1 about the legacy you'd like to leave for your children.
- ? Do you want to make any changes to what you previously wrote?
- ? Have you been progressing in this direction over the last 34 weeks?

11.

- ✓ Create a battle plan of practical ways you will prepare your kids to face the giants in the years to come.
