

Abraham and ISAAC

by Akram Zaki
Illustrated by Paulo Gaviola

First Printing: August 2023

Copyright © 2023 by Akram Zaki. All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, copied, broadcast, stored, or shared in any form whatsoever without written permission from the publisher, except in the case of brief quotations in articles and reviews. For more information write:

Master Books, PO Box 726, Green Forest, AR 72638

Master Books® is a division of the New Leaf Publishing Group, LLC.

Please consider requesting that a copy of this volume be purchased by your local library system.

ISBN: 978-1-68344-336-0

ISBN: 978-1-61458-837-5 (digital)

Library of Congress: 2023930811

Printed in China

Scripture quotations marked (NIV) are taken from the Holy Bible,

New International Version®, NIV®, Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.™ Used by permission of Zondervan. All rights reserved worldwide.

Please visit our website for other great titles:

www.masterbooks.com

For information regarding promotional opportunities, please contact the publicity department at pr@nlpg.com.

MB
Master
Books®

A Division of New Leaf Publishing Group
www.masterbooks.com

This is a true story.

It comes from Genesis
Chapter 22 in your Bible.

This story has some hidden things to look out for.

See if you can find them:

Long ago in Bible times, people used to make sacrifices to God. God had taught them that disobeying Him (sin) deserved death. But God loved them and gave them a way out. Instead of them dying, God told them to sacrifice a lamb.

When people saw that the lamb had died, it reminded them that God was serious about sin but that He had provided a way for them to escape, because in a way, the lamb had died in their place.

This story happened back then.

God had promised Abraham that He would give him a son. Abraham had waited many, many years, but in the end God had kept His promise when Isaac was born.

Abraham loved his son.
He loved him more than anything else in this world.

