This is a true story.

It comes from I Samuel Chapter 17 in your Bible.

This story has some hidden things to look out for.

See if you can find them:

In the Bible, God's chosen people, the Israelites, had many enemies. One group was called the Philistines.

The Philistines made war with the Israelites, A LOT.

One day, the Philistines called up a champion.
His name was Goliath.

Goliath was a giant. NO, ACTUALLY, A GIANT.
He was strong and tough and a man of war. He had a spear, a sword, and a shield.

Goliath challenged the Israelites.
He stood in the valley between the armies and yelled, “Choose for yourselves a champion
and let him fight me.
If he wins, we will surrender to you, but if he loses, then you must surrender
to us.”

The Israelites were afraid, and they couldn't choose a champion because no one in their army was strong enough to defeat Goliath.
