This is a true story about Jesus.
It comes from John
Chapter 4 in your Bible.

In a town called Capernaum, there lived a man who worked for King Herod. He was an important man, and when he gave orders, people listened and obeyed.

The man's son was very sick. He had ordered the doctors to help, and even though they tried, there was nothing they could do. The little boy grew sicker and sicker, and they knew that soon he would die.

The man knew that there were things like sickness and death that no ordinary person could control, not even a person as important as himself.

One morning, the man heard that Jesus was in a nearby town. He had heard about Jesus before. The man knew that Jesus was no ordinary person and that He could do things no one had ever done before.

He knew that Jesus told people to believe that He was God's special chosen king, but since the man had never seen Jesus do any miracles himself, he wasn't sure what to believe.
